"THE RELIABLE ADVERTISERS OF FACTS."TOOK MEN TO A PRIZE-FIGHT.
Now Suit Has Been Brought to Revoke the Railroad's Charter.
(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
LAWRENCEBURG, Ind., Sept. 22.—"Bud" Lally and "Jim" Murray fought a prize-fight here recently. Today H. L. Davis, the Public Prosecutor, began an action to revoke the Indiana charter of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad Company, over whose tracksa train of cars was run for the prize-fighters.
The petition declares that the railroad company did unlawfully transport and carry from Cincinnati, O., to Dearborn County, Ind., 163 men known to the defendants as reputed thieves, burglars and outlaws, who invaded Indiana stealthily, and sold outlaws brought into the fair grounds to assist Lally and Murray in a bloody and brutal prize-fight. The plaintiff demands judgment of ouster against the defendant and forfeiture of all its franchises or corporate rights.O'NEILL'S6TH AVE., 20TH TO 21ST ST.
